

Christian Homeschool Conference

19th-20th March 2011

Boyanup

Belinda Letchford

Belinda and her husband Peter live in Kununurra with their four children. They homeschool, are actively involved in the church and community. Their desire is to help families see parenting as an opportunity to disciple their children so that the family can grow together in their love for God.

Karen Trexona

Karen and her husband Andrew live in Perth with their five daughters. Their homeschool is ever growing and changing while seeking God's heart for their children. Karen loves to see communities of homeschool mums be encouraged and to build each other up.

Both ladies are Christ centred and have eclectic lifestyle learning preferences while learning to accept the reality of what really happens.
