

Verbal Freedoms

Live life with your Kids! Newsletter
<http://www.lifestyle-homeschool.com>

Rebellious	Self Control
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whinging • Temper tantrum - yelling, squealing • Answering back • Arguing, questioning, debating, negotiating, pleading • Humphing and grumping • Attitude / Tone • Ignoring you – silent treatment • Refusal – I don't want to!, No! • Wise in own eyes - know it all, too big for their britches, entering an adults world uninvited, insists on having the last word • Demanding - either attention, or action, or affection • Manipulation / control - I don't love you any more • Swearing (though for younger children this may well be a self control issue as they just mimic) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whinging (becomes a habit because it works) • Controlling conversation – not listening to others, not taking turns, not preferring others, turning conversation to me and my topics (its all about me) • Inside outside voice – whispering • Name calling – unkind words • Inappropriate words – Swearing, sarcasm, joking at your expense, flippant comments, • Shy behaviour (truly shy or pretending) • Participating uninvited into adult conversation (eavesdropping) • Not using “manners” such as May I? / Thank you / Please / Excuse me / I'm sorry • Interrupting – telephone calls, visitors, when others are thinking, reading, working

2 Timothy 2:16 NKJ

But shun profane and vain babblings, for they will increase to more ungodliness.